Project title

Art Curriculum Development at Swaziland High School for the Deaf

About the project

The objective of Yebo! is to develop the arts in Swaziland by running a transparent and permanent art gallery, and classes and workshops for young deaf people. The arts are used as a vehicle for personal growth, expressions, skills training, income generation, development and understanding. The Yebo! school for deaf people is the only one of its kind in Swaziland.

Project goal 1: To utilize arts education to unlock and promote creative ability and expression of students and teachers at the High School for the Deaf.

Project goal 2: To use local artists and resources to facilitate relevant and sustainable workshops and skills training.

Project goal 3: To train the art teachers and compile an art syllabus to ensure continuation of the activities at the High School for the Deaf

Project goal 4 : To collect data, resources and feedback to develop a more comprehensive ArtReach project focused on schools, youth centers and institutions around Swaziland .
